AT A GLANCE

Cannes is the ultimate destination for the "see-and-be-seen" lifestyle. The marina is packed with luxury yachts, while super-cars cruise through the streets, and shopping revolves around high-end designer names. It's no surprise that it's a hotspot for the jet-setter. However, beneath the glitz, there's still a touch of authentic France. Think grand 19th-century mansions, charming waterfront cafés, and cliff-lined beaches, all offering a slice of classic Mediterranean allure alongside the modern-day luxury.

Cannes is a tender port, meaning we'll anchor a bit offshore, and you'll travel to and from the ship using tender boats. It adds a touch of adventure to the journey, offering a scenic ride to the bustling city. More information can be found in your Cruise News.

OUT AND ABOUT

Le Suquet: This historic district of Cannes is perched on a hill that provides breath-taking views of the city and the surrounding landscape. Known for its narrow, cobblestone streets, colourful buildings, and rich history, this charming neighbourhood offers a glimpse into the past.

The Palais des Festivals et des Congrès: Is a world-renowned venue located in Cannes, famous for hosting the prestigious Cannes Film Festival.

La Croisette: The glamorous waterfront boulevard in Cannes, stretching along the Mediterranean coastline. Known for its luxurious atmosphere, stunning views, and high-end shopping, La Croisette is one of the most famous promenades in the world.

BEST BEACHES

Located around a 10 minute walk from the city centre, Plage du Midi Beach boasts clear turquoise waters and soft golden sands. This beach is known for its relaxed yet stylish atmosphere and is well-equipped with sun loungers, umbrellas, showers, toilets, and cafés.

SHOPPING

Cannes is not only famous for its beaches and the glitzy film festival but also for its exceptional shopping scene. For a high-end fashion experience, make a beeline for La Croisette, where you'll find all the top designer boutiques. Alternatively, head to Rue Meynadier for a more local, unique shopping experience, with a range of stores offering quality items at more affordable prices.

DO IT LIKE THE LOCALS

Locals love their food, so dive into the region's rich culinary offerings. Head to a traditional bistro or brasserie for classic Provençal dishes like bouillabaisse (fish stew), ratatouille, and fresh seafood. Don't forget to try some local wines too!

JUST SO YOU KNOW

As this is a tender port, more information about how to head ashore can be found in Cruise News.
